

horizon longing

A single line creates a fold the line cannot break or so, the fold

multiple lines along a strip make waves

you said you would be the oldest man to become a lifeguard, had you made higher rank

What a feat! I rejoiced. try again, praise her. continue to praise the sea for you and from afar, for me.

beyond the waves is another single and unbroken line
its broken here form buildings

how would I build myself an ocean to look at,
to find the horizon with?
can I just build its waves with folds on lines?

I believe that you honor the ocean.
that the ocean may be the only woman deep and strong and will full enough for you if I begin with the surface, can I make enough folds?
